Notice Regarding the Completion of EV Prototype in Thailand

We hereafter announce regarding our production of electric vehicles (EV) in Thailand that we have completed prototype vehicles.

In the “Notice Regarding Progress of Electric Vehicle Production in Thailand” dated 15 June 2022, we informed that our production consigner of the EV “FOMM ONE” would start producing prototype vehicles from 21 June, which will be followed by a full-scale mass production starting from 11 July.

The prototype production progressed as planned and finally completed on 25 June. The full-scale mass production is expected to start as scheduled uninterruptedly.

Here, we have attached a photo of the prototype vehicle for your reference.
